JOSSELINS and TERLING, WHITE NOTLEY AND LINCOLN

1. Transcribed from "White Notley One Hundred Years Ago". Extracts from the Parish magazine 1899 - 1900"
 Burial: April 7th 1900. Joseph Joslin, aged 90. The oldest inhabitant of White Notley passed away peacefully on Sunday April 1st, three days after celebrating his 90th birthday. Though bedridden for more than two years, he retained his faculties up to the last, death being due simply to old age.

2. ob cit. September 1900.
 The Annual Sale for Home Missions held on August 28th. Among the children receiving book prizes for Good conduct and proficiency in Religious Knowledge was Daisy Joslin.

3. Terling Church. Framed document. Transcription. 1868.
 "We the undersigned Inhabitants of the Parishes of Terling and Fairstead and neighbourhood with other Friends are desirous of giving doctor Gimson a small Testimonial in condition of his efficient services, unremitting attention and perseverance to the people of Terling and neighbourhood during the recent great calamitous visitation of Typhoid Fever (1868). The Testimonial to consist of two handsome silver cups with an elegant Purse containing One hundred Sovereigns.

- List contained:- John Joslin 6d.
